1. Corrections to the December 2002 issue:

In the Dec 02 issue, I erroneously listed (Btreece@edcen.ehhs.cmich.edu) as the researcher of the following:

William C. Dunn is the correct researcher (Sorry Bill, ED)

William C. Dunn (wcdunn@bellsouth.net) - is researching Fannin and Walker Counties, GA. His lineage is: William Harrison Dunn, bn 3 Aug 1851, died 3 Jul 1928; Samuel Washington Dunn, bn 23 Dec 1875 Pierveville, GA, died 17 Mar 1934, Edgewater, FL; William St. Clair Dunn, bn 12 Sep 1920 Copperhill, TN, died 25 Nov 1987. Miami, FL.

2. Welcome to the New Members:

*William Dunn (kscybd@worldnet.att.net) - reports the family has never known anything about their Dunn relatives. My father had and had never knew his grandparent's name. He vaguely remembered an aunt that by the time he was in his teens, he'd lost track of. That's where I came in. I'm looking for any information on a Dunn family that left Virginia for Ohio between 1850 and 1860. He is also researching West Virginia; and Pettis and Macon Co., MO.

John Dunn (dunnj46@pdq.net) odd Dunn (tdjunkmail@operamail.com) - is particularly interested in a George Hampton Dunn who left Madison County, Alabama to go to Florida. He is as far back as I can go on the Dunn side of the family and he is my Great-Great-Grandfather.

5. Royal Irish Constabulary (RIC)

(A continuation of a series began in 2002)

Until 1836, the Irish police force was composed of small groups of sub-constables or part-time policemen, appointed by local authorities. With the passage of the Irish Constabulary Act in 1836, Ireland was finally able to organize a single organized force. Power to appoint and discharge members of the force, make rules and fix salaries, was vested in the lord lieutenant of Ireland. This newly created Irish Constabulary was responsible for the peace of the whole country (With the exception of Dublin which had, since 1786, retained its own police, the Dublin Metropolitan Police)

In Sep 1867, the Constabulary was renamed the Royal Irish Constabulary. Its duties were gradually extended, i.e., the functions of the Revenue Police, collection of agriculture statistics, fishery law enforcement, census enumerators. The RIC was disbanded on 30 Aug 1922, however, pensions continued to be paid by the paymaster general in London.

The LDS Family History Library in Salt Lake City, UT has these records on microfilm and may be ordered through local Family History Centers for a nominal fee. Even if an Irish ancestor enlisted for a few days or weeks, details are still on record. The original records go into greater details and normally include full name, age, height, religious affiliation, native country, trade, marital status etc. (The wife's name and information about the parents are not included in the original record details) The FHL Film No., name, age, county of birth, enlistment date, page number and additional notes are listed below.
