"Dunn Diggers" - Vol 1, Issue 8 (18 Nov 2002)

"False Census Entries" - According to Arlene Eakle, Ph.D., "padding the totes," or adjusting the census for political reasons, was not uncommon. "Frontier areas, anxious for statehood, often added bogus names. In 1857, seven counties in Minnesota had wild population totals, complete with fake names on schedules. Jurisdictions facing increased taxes might also understate their population to keep overall per capita taxes lower. The 1880 Utah census juggled households to disguise polygamy at a time when federal officials were seeking evidence for the prosecution of those convicted of unlawful cohabitation." The Source: A Guidebook of American Genealogy. Salt Lake City: Ancestry, 1984.

Quote of the Month: "[Thanksgiving] as founded be th' Puritans to give thanks fr'r bein' presarved fr'm th' Indyans, an' we keep it to give thanks we are presarved fr'm th' Puritans." Finley Peter Dunne, "Thanksgiving," Mr. Dooley's Opinions (1901)

5. Bill Dunn (bill1dunn@msn.com) - has been researching Dunn's for over thirty years. Because Bill's response to the questionnaire sent to each new subscriber is unique, his family line and related summation is presented below.
6. Jo (Dunn) Sheppard (rb joshep@aol.com)
7. Glenda (JMerryinAZ@aol.com) - is researching for ancestors of John H. Dunn bn Mar 1854 in Shullsburg, Lafayette Co., WI and died 1927 in Los Angeles CA. John married Adelaide White, dau of John Henry White and Mary Daykin, in WI in 1876. Adelaide was bn 1856, Lafayette Co., WI and died 1898 in Marcus IA. John was the son of James Dunn and Mary Sullivan. James bn 1824, in Waterford Co., Ireland and died in Lafayette Co, WI in 1899. Mary bn 1827 in Waterford Co., Ireland, died 1921 in Mitchell, SD. Glenda believes James' parents were Pat Dunn and Bridget ?.
8. (dbpc5153@ligtel.com)
9. Roslyn (nonny984@home.ffni.com) - has Dunns in Northampton, PA, VA, KY, IN and possibly IL. James Dunn from Ireland was father of Samuel Fowler Dunn and grandfather of Williamson Dunn. Samuel married a Brewster sister and is buried at Indiana University in Southern Indiana.
10. Denise (Tulsaham@aol.com) - is another Kentucky researcher and interests focus on Garrard Co.
11. (Ajp22397) - who admits to being new to Genealogy, lists Butler and Logan Co., KY as region of research.
12. (jody@pokynet.com)
13. (hannahawk@msn.com)
14. John Dunn (jfdunn46970@yahoo.com) - is interested anything that pertains to Dunns in Ireland, especially Ulster. James Dunn, born 1720 in Ireland, served 3 yrs in revolution, had six sons that served and they all survived.

15. Virginia Campbell (tslaginadv@hotmail.com) is searching for information on her mother, Hattie Virginia Miller who was born in Red Oak, OK 1912-1916. Hattie's parents may be Benjamin Frankin Miller and "Becky" Dunn. Hattie's sibling were Everett and Alonzo. She would appreciate any information on this family.

16. Yvonne Rupp (fredyvonne@aol.com) is looking for information on her father, Howard Dunn from Sharon PA

17. Ann Rawlins (ann_rawlins@yahoo.com) joined us last month has shared her Dunn interest. She is trying to locate family of her gggrandfather, William Dunn, who appeared in the Trigg Co., KY census. The census lists William's place of birth as TN, however, her gggrandfather's death certificate reports William as bn in IL. She is also researching Christian and Caldwell Co., KY; Stewart, Montgomery, and Robertson Co., TN and VA.

18. Don Raymond (dhr1952@planetkc.com) is researching Silas and Louisa M. Dunn family of GA, Benton Co., AL and Comanche Co., TX. He has located Silas on the 1840 and 1850 Benton Co., AL census. There is John Dunn in the same area as early as 1820, who is the right age to be Silas' father; along with Barney, William and John Jr. who could be brothers although he had not been able to find any supporting evidence. When Silas migrated to Comanche Co., TX, he settled east of the town of Comanche, at Cora, near a community later known as Hasse. Several Dunn descendants are buried in the Sardis Cemetery at Hasse, TX.

19. Gail (Dunn) Bisey (ghbisbey@hotmail.com) - is another KY researcher and lists Breckinridge, Hardin, Grayson, Meade, Hancock and Ohio Counties of interest. She is also searching records in White Co., TN, SC and VA. Her gr-gr-grandfather, Eli Dunn served in the Civil War; while his brother Ben, somewhat served, is listed as a "deserter."

20. Bill Dunn's Family Line -

It is very interesting to me, to see how many different lines of Dunn there are. As I see it, prior to 1800, they came to New England, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia and Virginia from England, Scotland and Ireland. All separate lines.

My line is documented back to William, Sr. (b 1669 Old Rappahannock Co, Virginia, d 1731 Essex Co. VA). He is reported to be the son of the immigrant, Thomas (b 1606 England). Who came to Virginia as a 14 year old indentured servant to Sir George Yeardley, Governor of Virginia in 1620. Several sources say that William was a son of this Thomas and I am seeking proof of the relationship.

William, Sr. had 5 sons and 5 daughters and by the mid 1700's there were over 70 Dunns in Essex Co. VA. It seems most of his descendants stayed in the area or went South. Two of his great grandsons, Edmund and Julius Spencer, moved to Warren Co. Kentucky in about 1800. Julius Spencer's son, William Henry married Phebe Thompson in 1821 and they settled in Boone Co. Missouri. I have found very few connections to this line and would very much like to find other connections.

- Always looking for more documented information. I hope the above is not too wordy and I will provide documentation if anyone is interested.
